15th Sunday Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioners

On Monday we celebrated a Mass for the School children and staff of Saint Joseph's School in Kaikoura. The gospel chosen was today's well-known story of the Good Samaritan.

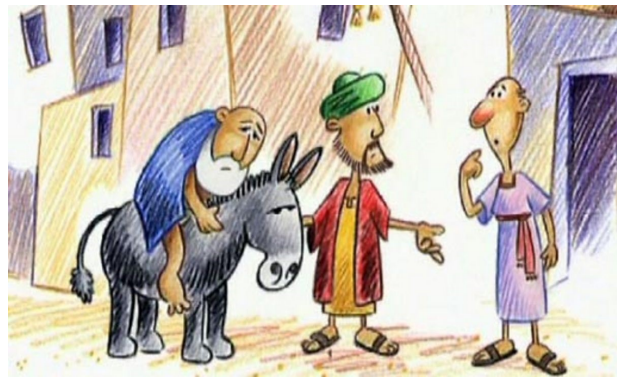

During the homily I was impressed with the children's recall of the gospel – their grasp of all the beautiful details and their significance was impressive.

It was five-year-old Evie who remembered the words of the Good Samaritan to the innkeeper, "Take care of him until I return."

Saint Bede, who died in 735, writes that the Good Samaritan is an image of the church which looks after those in need until the Lord returns – Evie was quoting Jesus and Saint Bede!

So how might we show mercy to others? And how might we show the same mercy to ourselves?

With every blessing in Christ
Michael McCabe

Quote from ADW Ecology, Justice and Peace Advisor

In the face of so much pain and suffering, our only course is to imitate the Good Samaritan. Any other decision would make us either one of the robbers or one of those who walked by without showing compassion for the sufferings of the man on the roadside. The parable shows us how a community can be rebuilt by men and women who identify with the vulnerability of others, who reject the creation of a society of exclusion, and act instead as neighbours, lifting up and rehabilitating the fallen for the sake of the common good. Pope Francis: Fratelli Tutti paragraph 67, 2020

A Warm Welcome to Our Parish Family of Marlborough

We are joy-filled missionary disciples: walking in Christ's light, growing in faith together, and taking the Gospel and the love of Jesus to the people of Marlborough and beyond.
